| A Main Street Merchant Committee/Economic Restructuring:Committee Member Stuart thanked Community Development Director Owen for his help on the First Friday event. The on-street parking was well utilized. Some of the planned participants did not come due to rain before the event. Stores remained busy after designated closing. The Payson Merchants Guild reviewed bylaws to be ratified at next meeting.               | Main Street Merchant Committee |
| B Main Street Update: Interim GVRA/Main Street Program Manager Boone reported the Arizona Main Street Program would be adopting guidelines for community participation. Meetings have taken place with merchants of the Swiss Village and other town staff regarding changing the Electric Light Parade to coincide with their Thanksgiving weekend event. GVRA members opposed changing from the first Saturday evening in December. | Main Street Update             |
| C Roundtable: The Ten Year Plan will be discussed at the September meeting. Sawmill mural plans are progressing. Committee Member Drury has scheduled a meeting with new school superintendent to discuss uses for the rock building at Julia Randall Elementary.                                                                                                                                                                     | Roundtable                     |
